

In Vermont, Our Most Controversial Public Land
Management Discussions
Revolve Around Recreation
Verse Wildlife Issues Not Timber Management Issues

“I can’t believe it! This is impossible! Nothing here but—wait! Wait! I see something! ... Yes! There they are—granola bars!”

Under “State Issues”, Is The Standard Requiring The Land
Manager To Give Preference
To Local Businesses

The Conclusion I Reached
Was That Current FSC
Standards Go Way Beyond
(Socially and Ecologically)
What The Public Perceives
As Sustainable

I Don't Believe Our Citizens
Are Ready To Step Up To
The Plate And Greatly Increase Our Staff and Resources To Be Able To Implement FSC Type Standards

You Have To Ask Yourself,
What Does The Public Think
Of When You Say Sustainable?

SOMETIMES I WONDER,
HOW WOULD MY LIFE
BE DIFFERENT IF ALL
WHALES WERE EXTINCT?

IT'S NOT LIKE THEY DO ANY-THING FOR US. YOU NEVER HEAR OF SEEING-EYE
WHALES. THEY CAN'T
FETCH THE PAPER OR DRAG
YOU OUT OF A BURNING

DON'T YOU THINK
THE WORLD HAS TOO MANY FAT,
WORTHLESS,
MAMMALS?

I WAS JUST THINKING THAT, SIR.

Sustainable To Us Has Traditionally Meant That
You Grow More Than You
Harvest
